Matthew.

I am glad we were able to talk on several occasions this year, the time necessary to get involved, all the way from being kicked out of tutorials to showing interests in music. Words of advice can sound so self-righteous, but I know if you are patient and would work at it, first draw, unselfconsciously like taking notes of what you hear, you could express all those ideas of yours the way you would. So I am going to leave you the rest of this space to fill in yourself. go for it

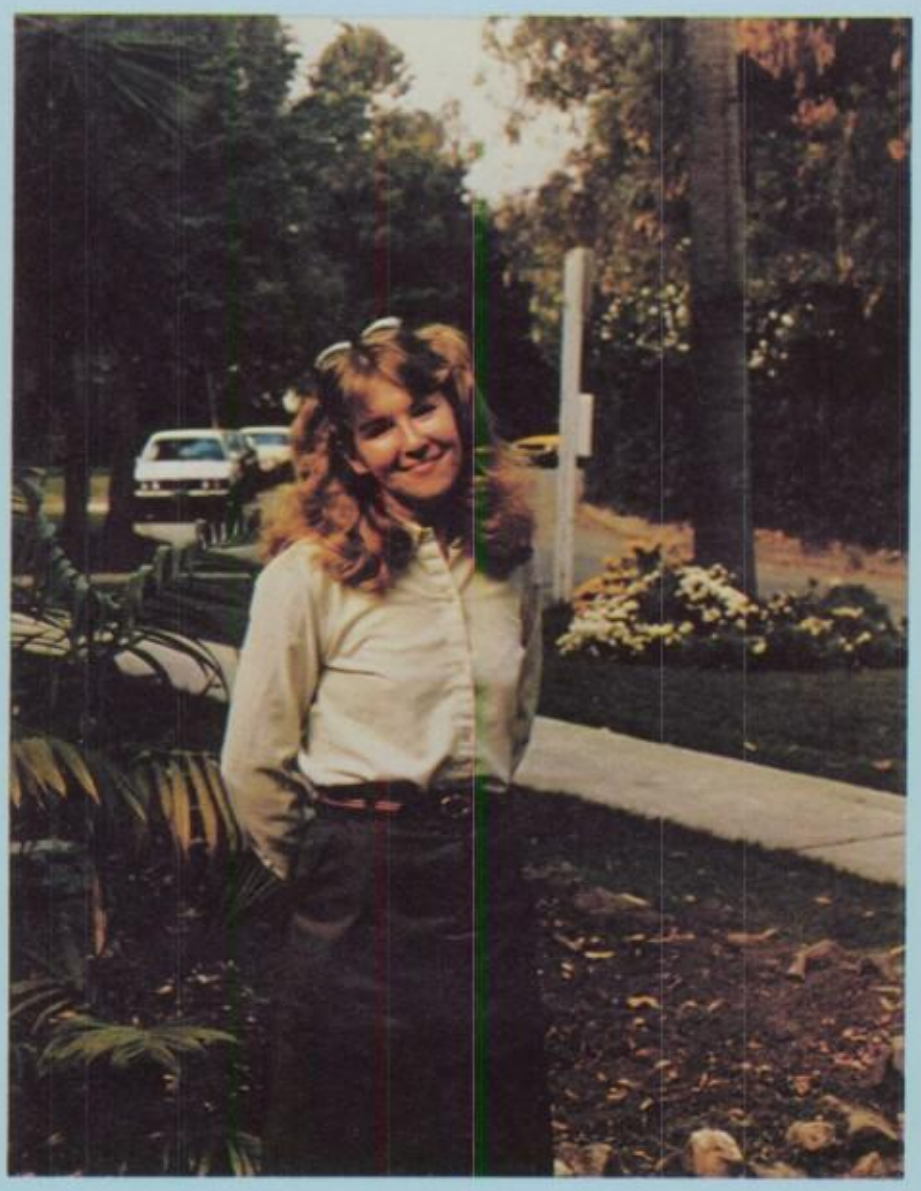
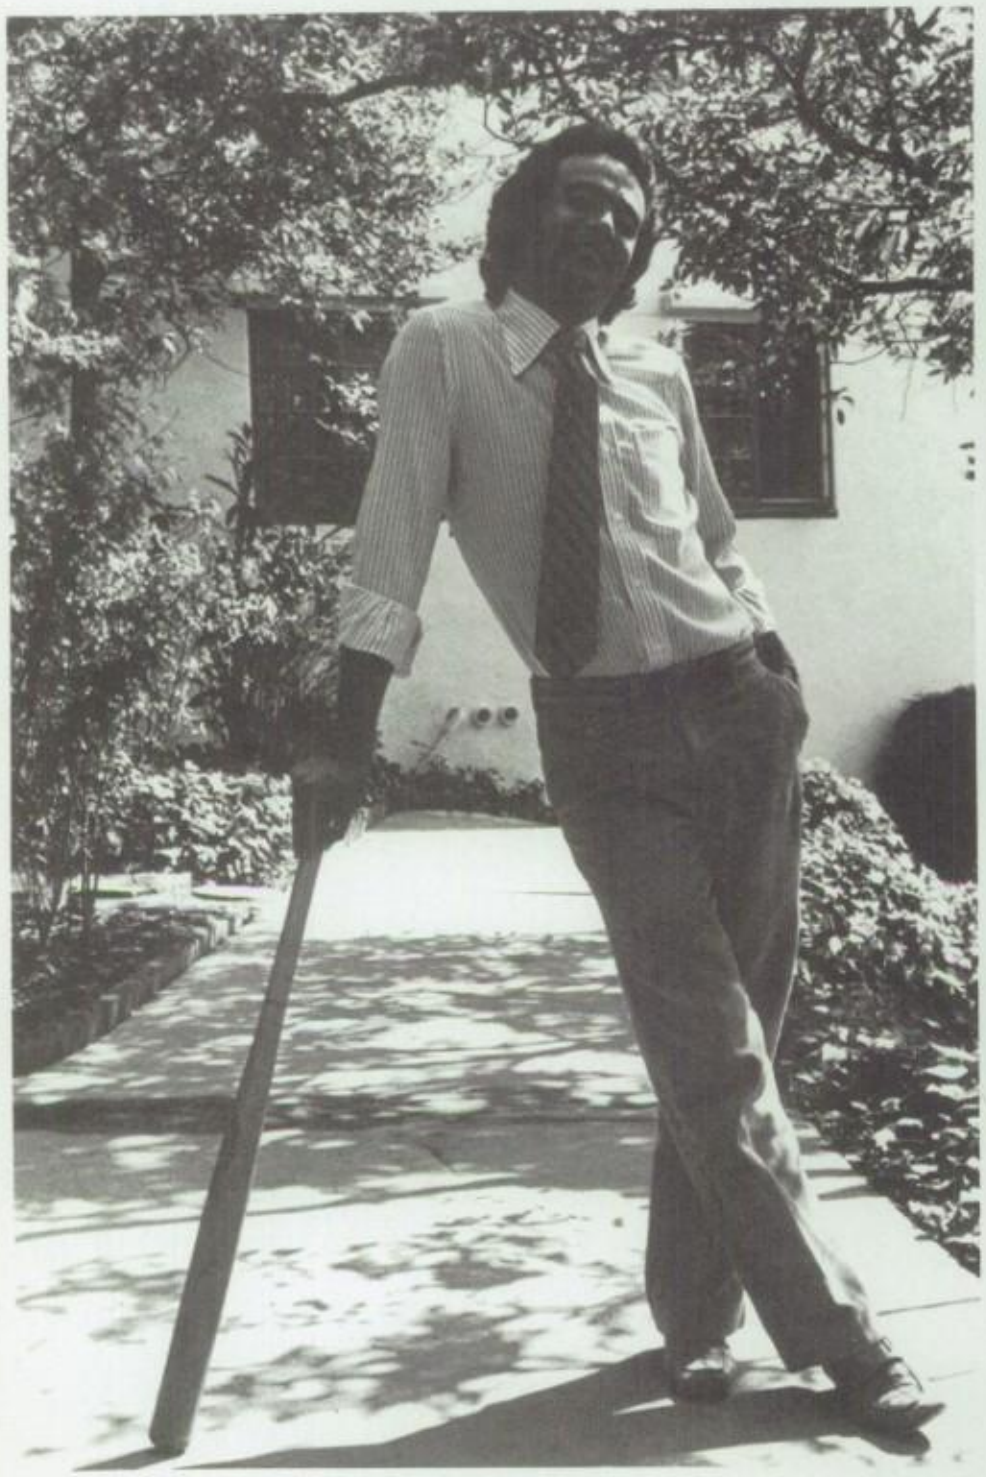
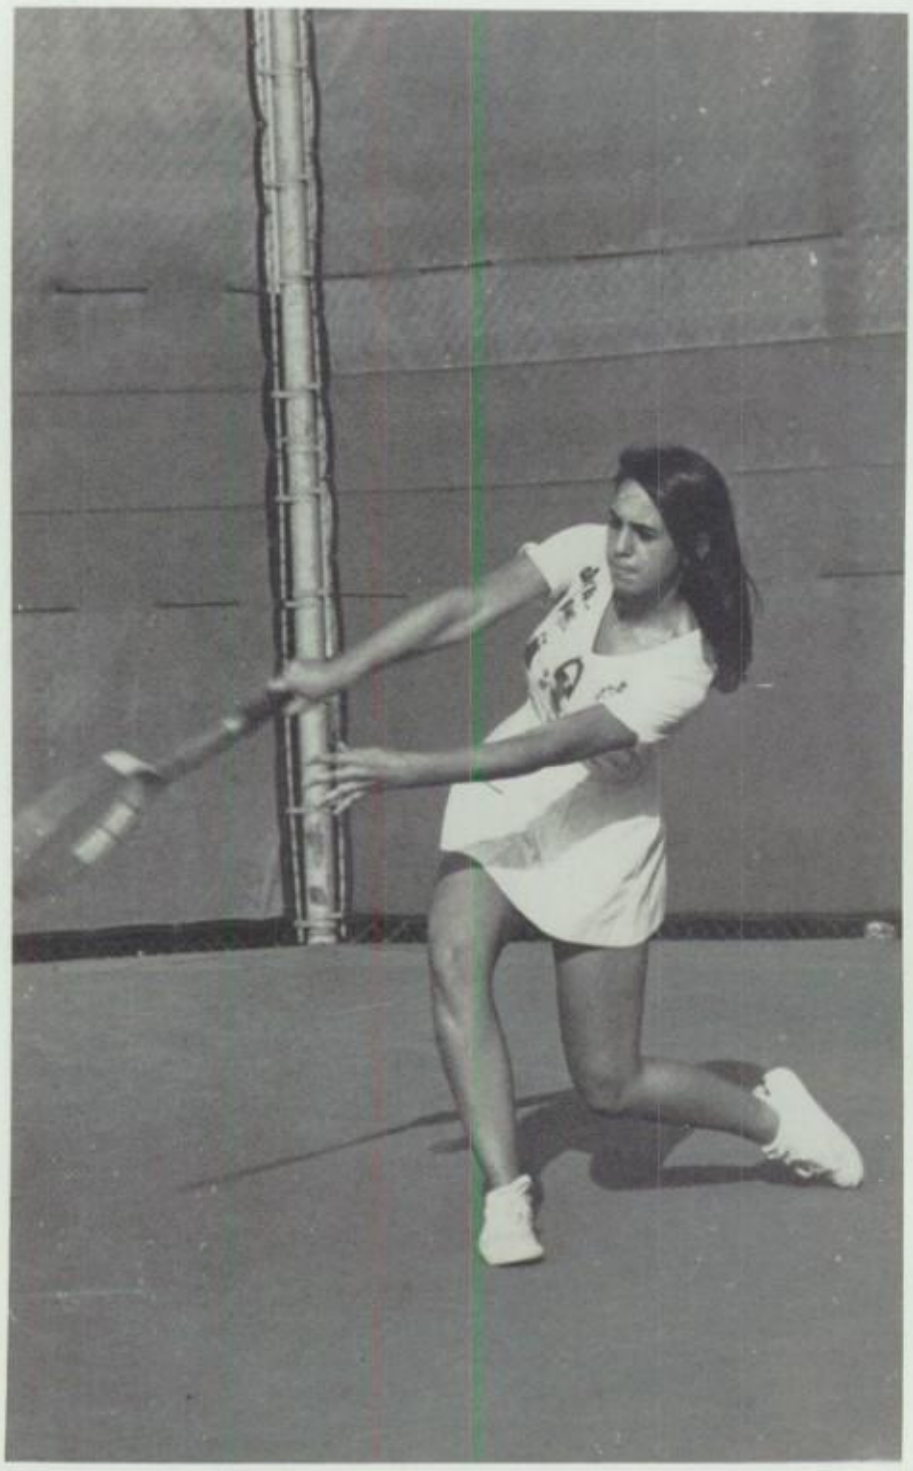
SENIOR CLASS DEDICATION

Valerie Mickish has been a member of the Brentwood School faculty for four years. In a short time Ms. Mickish, or "Ms. Mick" as she is fondly referred to, has taught not only senior English, but also dramatics. Ms. Mick has almost singlehandedly created Brentwood's drama department, and has served as a teacher, director, and inspiration to all who have participated in or simply seen a Brentwood School production. Moreover, Valerie Mickish has become the Senior Class's teacher. She is a lady who not only teaches "we" the proper use of pronouns, but also teaches us about ourselves. She always seems to be able to make us laugh and to pull us through rough times. She is a teacher we regard as a friend and one we can always trust. We only hope that we have become as special to her as she has become to us. It is, therefore, with great pride that we, the Brentwood School graduating class of 1982, make this dedication to our friend, Valerie Mickish.







1974-1982 SCHOOL DEDICATION

Mr. Charles Downes, headmaster of Brentwood School since 1974, announced his resignation last fall, effective this June. When Mr. Downes came to Brentwood, it was a school which had high potential and great dreams, but which was very new and had a long way to go. In the eight years since then he has led us far toward achieving that potential and realizing those dreams, and he leaves us in a strong position to continue in the directions he has shown us. The school today has a large and strong student body, a skilled and caring faculty and administration, and, after a lengthy struggle, the start of an ambitious building program. For this Brentwood School can look with gratitude and pride to Charles Downes. His strong and tireless leadership will be long remembered and appreciated.

Mr. Downes, we the students of Brentwood School wish to thank you for all you have done for us. We are confident that we speak not only for ourselves, but for the entire Brentwood family, and that students for the past eight years, the faculty, your fellow administrators, and the Board of Trustees join us in our thanks to you. It is in honor of your years of devoted and skilled service to our school that we wish to make this dedication to you. Good luck, best wishes, and thanks.

FROM MR. DOWNES

When I arrived at Brentwood eight years ago, everything was in a state of flux. Enrollment was down, academic standards were questionable, facilities were woefully inadequate. The School was drifting like a ship without a rudder. With the magnificent support of an emerging Board of Trustees, we were able to rebuild and expand the faculty, introduce an administrative organization and team, enroll a superlative student body, thereby setting the School on a path that would witness the full development of a major independent school. Today, we all experience this splendid school with a profound sense of pride, loyalty, love and devotion. Though we never doubted, little did we expect that we would be able to reach such a pinnacle of achievement in such a short span of time. And none of it could have been attained without the devotion of a talented faculty, the active encouragement of the Board and the confidence and courage of hopeful parents.

As I reflect on the eight years, I recall the anxieties, the dreams, the changes, the questions — all translated into a clearing picture of stability and consistency. As I leave, I am thoroughly convinced that Brentwood will move onward and upward, continuing to provide the youth of this area with the finest education available in the most caring community I have ever experienced. I am confident that what we have started will not disappear, rather be expanded and enriched for the good of all.

Herman: My best friend, I hope that you have gained and experienced as many good things as I. Good Luck at Howard, I'll miss you.

Coach Selleck: Thank you for your dedication and assistance in basketball. Most of all, thank you for introducing me to Brentwood.

Mr. Loy: Well M&M, I have finally achieved the things for which I strove. Thank you for all the fun and meaningful experiences.

Mr. Downes: All of this would not have been possible were you not the understanding and caring person you are. To you I owe more than I ever will be able to repay. Thank You.

To The Brentwood School: To all of the people I cannot thank individually. Thank You. You have bettered my life.

To my parents: Without your support, I don't think I ever would have made it. I Love You.

PERSISTENCE

Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence. Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent. The slogan "Press On" has solved and always will solve the problems of the human race.

CHRIS BROWN

Grade seven ...
That's when you start ...
You can't comprehend ...
The next five ahead ...

When you get there ...
You start to settle in ...
Then you learn the facts ...
Scrubs are on the low end ...

Life is not hard ...
Then you meet your new "friends"
The cliques are all set ...
If you are not from the right school ...
You're just not in ...

In a couple of months ...
The first finals come ...
They're really hard ...
But you make it through ...
There's nothing else you can do ...
Then you look back ...
Where did the time go ...

Soon it's all over ...
You're out for the summer ...
You've go nothing to do ...
"Go to the street corner" ...
Snaps for all ...

September is here ...
School is near ...
Eighth-no fear ...

You see all your "friends" ...
Note the new faces ...
No real interest ...
In GIRLS yet ...

The jocks prove themselves ...
The rest ...
They're just there ...
Take three sets of finals ...
Then you're out for the year ...

Back to the street corner ...
Learn more about town ...
Got to find a place ...
"We'll get busted here" ...

Find a place ...
Settle down there ...
Oh no! It's here ...
School, for another *@#%&) year ...
It's year three ...
Some new faces to see ...
Hey what's that???
Oh God — that's a girl I see ...

Sexual frustration ...
Brings the grades down ...
But what's a young boy to do ...
The juniors and seniors ...
Have taken our beaver ...
Anything younger ...
Don't look ready yet ...

You have to trudge through ...
Still nothing you can do ...
Then it's time to smile ...
You just took your last ...
  Final ...
Back to your hang ...
There with the gang ...
This the place for me ...
It's where I want to be ...

Having fun ...
Then we're hung ...
Because we stole ...
And were stolen from ...
  By parents and "friends" ...

Now don't get the wrong idea ...
We were not really bad ...
It's just ...
The SUPER EGOS were not ...
  Glad ...

School starts again ...
But summer life ...
Don't come to an end ...
Just have to get through ...
The daily $#!¢ again ...
Learned one thing ...
How to not stop ...
Without getting popped ...

Hey parties are cool ...
They're something to do ...
You can meet girls too ...

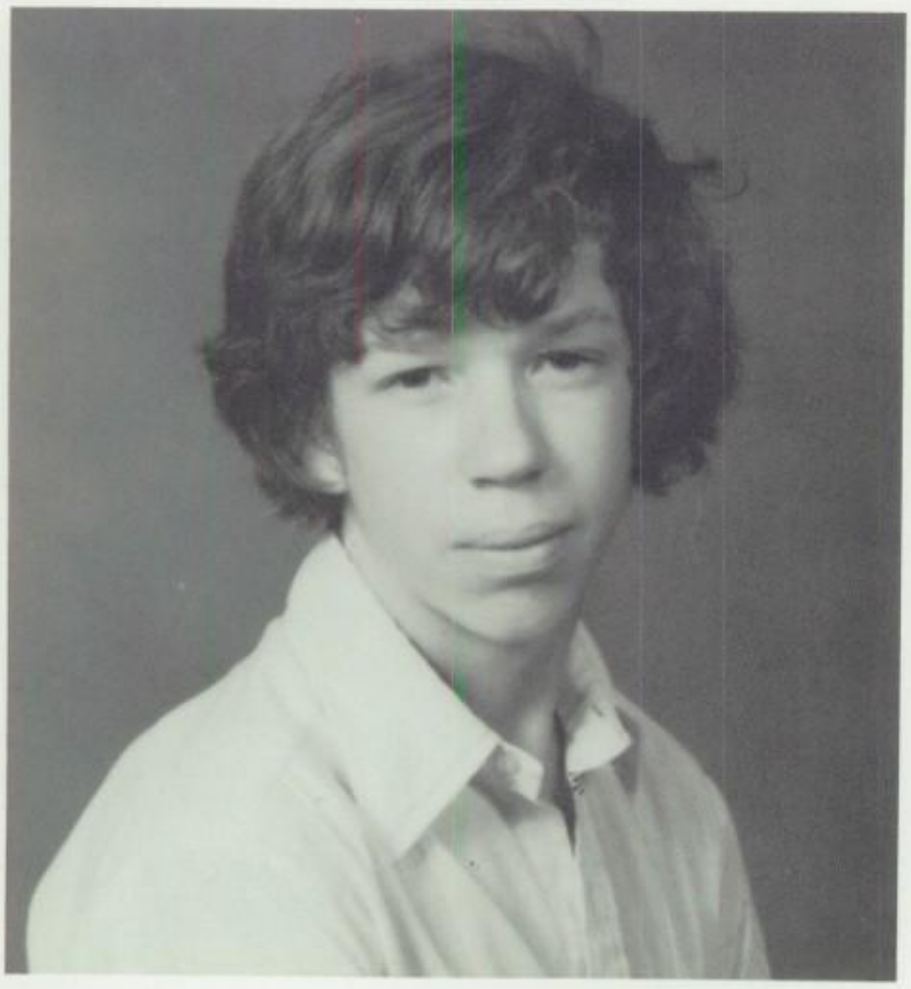
The boys don't understand ...
The girls want it too ...
Things too heavy must be avoided ...
Social Disease is a subconcious tool ...
An excuse to keep from ...
  Looking the fool ...

Summer comes ...
School friends lost again ...
The gang's still there ...
Once again our small party starts ...
The hangs to elaborate ...
Once again we're &*¢@!¢ POOPED ...

It's a boring cycle ...
I've got to get out ...
Dad says I'm too stout ...
To not hang it out ...

Back to school again ...
Suprised to see ...
The cliques ...
They've almost ...
Stopped to be ...
And similarities join ...

Boys and girls ...
Still won't say it ...
But I'll bet ...
They would join ...
If they could ...
However ...
The SUPER EGOS would shout ...



Then summer comes ...
So does the first real job ...
MONEY and GIRLS ...
Oh my God!
Now we know what ...
We've been missing ...

School starts again ...
And the temptations start ...
To reach down ...
Just like they did ...
In the first part ...

The sleep is still in my eyes.
The dream is still in my head.

And when you walk in golden halls
The King will be the first to fall.
It's heaven and hell.

John:
A sophisticated human can become primitive. What this really means is that the human's way of life changes. Old values change, become linked to the landscape with its plants and animals. This new existence requires a working knowledge of those multiplex and cross-linked events usually referred to as nature. It requires a measure of respect for the inertial power within such natural systems. When a human gains this working knowledge and respect, that is called "being primitive."
The converse, of course, is equally true: the primitive can become sophisticated, but not without accepting dreadful psychological damage.

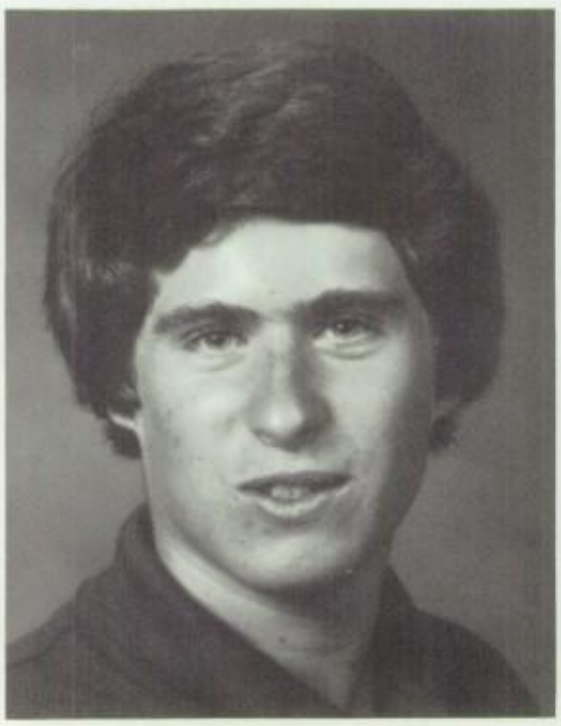
So I climb the dusty road back to reality
And make my way to the tunnel
And with shaky sight look back on heaven and childhood
And turn into the dark.



Though the thought has seldom occurred to me before, I now realize that I will miss this dreadful place. Perhaps I will not miss the school itself, but I will miss a good number of the people here. Recalling what we have had to put up with here I know what terrible hypocrisy this will be. As I will have forgotten this by the time I reach forty, I shall have no moral difficulties in telling my children how hard I worked when I was in high school and how much I loved it. These are our "good old days."

I almost forgot: Thanks Mom and Dad for existence, and everything else.

Life is a very peculiar happening. You make acquaintances, and, if you are lucky, maybe friends, only to lose them or just say, "Goodbye. We will keep in touch." — a promise not often kept, but one made in a probable act of emotion. I have spent six years at Brentwood. I will say, "Goodbye" to a lot of great people, probably never to see a single one of them again. I fit right into the pattern and will live on just as all of those acquaintances will . . . and the rest of the world.

My life at Brentwood (after all, I have been here for a third of my existence) has been memorable. I have had good and bad, experienced happiness and sadness. You learn a lot at Brentwood whether you want to or not. But the knowledge you receive extends far beyond academics. I have learned a great deal about myself, but, more importantly, a great deal about life. I like happiness. I want to be happy. I think this is my main desire in life, my one dream, my necessity. There has been a surplus of people who have made my life at Brentwood a happy one: Ms. Huchel, thanks for your support and our special friendship. Dad, I couldn't have made it without you. What can I say, Mom? Thanks for your love and caring. You will always be #1. Cynthia, thanks for putting up with me. You are D Finus. To all my friends Glenn, Dan, Alexis, Sam, Diana, Kristen, Janet, Jamie, and others, "Thanks." We had beautiful times. Finally, Rob. Without you my life at Brentwood would have been a disaster. We grew together, and I know we can never be pulled apart. It's written somewhere, Buddy. Thanks. I love you.

TIGER

"At noon the paper tigers roar." — Miroslav Holub.

The paper tigers roar at noon:
The sun is hot, the sun is high.
They roar in chorus, not in tune,
Their plaintive, savage hunting cry.

O, when you hear them, stop your ears
And clench your lids and bite your tongue.
The harmless paper tiger bears
Strong fascination for the young.

His forest is the busy street;
His den's the forum and the mart;
He drinks no blood, he tastes no meat:
He riddles and corrupts the heart.

But when the dusk begins to creep
From tree to tree, from door to door,
The jungle tiger wakes from sleep
And utters his authentic roar.

It bursts the night and shakes the stars
Till one breaks blazing from the sky;
Then listen! If to meet it scars
Your heart's reverberating cry,

My child, then put aside your fear:
Unbar the door and walk outside!
The real tiger waits you there;
His golden eyes shall be your guide.

And, should he spare you in his wrath,
The world and all the worlds are yours;
And should he leap the jungle path
And clasp you with his bloody jaws,

Then say, as his divine embrace
Destroys the mortal parts of you:
I too am of that royal race
Who do what we are born to do.

I would like to thank all of the teachers who made my six years at Brentwood so memorable . . . Special thanks to Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Levine, Miss Mickish, Mrs. Balak, Mrs. McIntyre, Dr. Belt and Mr. Loy.

Mom and Dad: Thank you for making it all possible. Thank you for your love, understanding and support. I love you.

To MOM and DAD: The cliche holds true, without you NONE of this would have ever been possible. I love you even more than I love myself. I WILL MAKE YOU PROUD.

To ROBERT:What we share is our business only. I love you and I thank you.

To TODD: We live two separate lives together as one. I love you . . .

To all my close friends, acquaintances, or those who just know my name: Thank you for being my life. I cherish the experiences we have had together, both good and bad, fantastic and terrible. They were all the BEST.

To REBECCA LEVINE, STEVEN LOY, ESTEBAN CACICEDO, and especially VALERIE MICKISH: Thank you for friendship, guidence, and love. I will never forget you.

I have really enjoyed the close atmosphere of Brentwood. The friendliness of the teachers and students have lightened the pressure of school work. Brentwood will always be a special part of me.

MOM AND DAD:
Thank you for all your warmth, concern, support and love. I hope our family remains close forever. Much love.

KATHY:
I hope we'll be as close friends for the rest of our lives as we have been while we've been growing up.

JODI:
You are a friend to me,
And I don't have to question if I am
A friend to you, because true friendship
Is not a question but an answer.

— Pam Dyner

MS. WALLACE AND DR. MAZZI:
You both inspired me in the classroom and are a friend to me as well. You are two people whom I truly admire and respect.

MR. VELAZQUEZ:
Thank you for all your help, but most of all, thank you for listening.

Ideals are like stars.
You will not succeed in touching
Them with your hands.
But like the seafaring men

Deserts of Water,
You chose them as your

And following them, you

Your destiny.

— Carl Schurz

I'm glad that we all could be supportive of each other, understand each other, and trust and love each other enough to share whatever is laid deep within our hearts. The endless hours of pondering have given me real insight about myself and others. I treasure the moments we've shared laughing and crying. I hope that time proves the bonds of our friendship strong. Even if we go our separate ways, you all will always be close to my heart.

If you love something, set it free.
If it comes back, it's yours to stay.
If it doesn't, it was never meant to be.

To all my friends:
"How wonderful life is while you're in the world."
Josh: Friends forever and ever . . . and ever.
Perry: My best buddy for the last 12 years. No matter how many times you saved me, I still owe you. The last six years haven't stopped us. 4 — 8 more can't make much more difference.
Bryan: Instantaneously friends overnight, it better not end as soon as it began. "Never fear Epsilon's here." We can hang it.

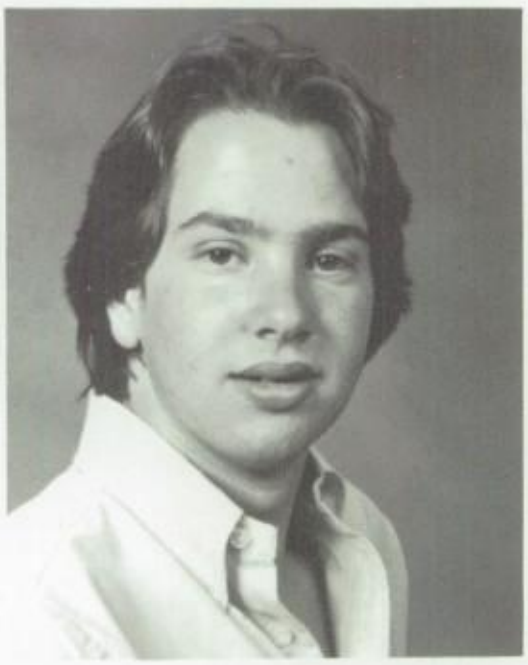
Thanks, Mom and Dad, for these best years of my life. I Love you both.



ROB:
You're like the brother I never had. You're not only a good friend, but a damn good cousin. May I always be with you in either spirit or Hawaii. (Yoke)
Rob a few memories:
Shark meat, Dodgers sure make great goals, poy boy, Big Malin, AZA, Barf Barf Gees, — her one good one for me, skin heads, have a melon ball, keep your eye on the ball, over the fence and on the head, don't trip Schmekel, hook, line & sinker, Jackpot, Farmer.

Chris what does a tarantula look like?

College, here we come. I think, I hope, Actually I don't care. I really don't know, do you care? Who me? No, him. No, he doesn't care. Then who cares? Peter Lawrence cares.

Diving is like escaping to another world. It's like floating in a Universe designed especially for you.

Won: It is truly an experience being your friend. I would never trade the experience for anything else, not even Fobar's-. You have become part of me, and, in essence, I have become part of you. You should always remember life is just a grand illusion and deep inside we are all the same. When the time comes for us to sail away to our own destinies you can look in the waves and remember the memory that two Pisces share within the world of life. Thanks for all the fun times and I know that there will be many more to come.

Pete: I would like to take this moment to say you are truly a wonderful friend. We have shared times of success and times of failure. We have both seen illusion and reality. This is just the beginning for we shall share many more times to come. Our friendship has just begun and shall never end. Thanks, Peter.

Chris: Thanks a lot for just being there when I needed you. You are not just one type of person but a combination of many, which makes you unique. Many people misjudge you because they cannot see through the illusion you create. You're the craziest friend a guy could ever have. However, that is why I like you so much. Take it easy and may you prosper in both the world of fantasy and the world of reality.

To all my other friends:
Thanks for being what you are. You all seemed to make life a more pleasant place to be. Thanks all for supporting me when I needed you. I hope all of you will enjoy whatever careers you wish to pursue. As the old Chinese philosopher used to say, "Your friends are part of your person which is part of your Friends."

...Two roads diverged in a wood, and I — I took the one less traveled by, and that has made all the difference.

I have grown with Brentwood and learned a great deal, not just about history and math but about life. It has been six long, hard, but worthwhile years. Thankyou Brentwood. A special thanks to Dr. Bell, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. O'Hanlon, Mr. Mickish and all the other teachers whom I have known... Eric - Your not one person but many which makes you unique and special. HERMAN MCKINNEY, JR.

I would like to take this opportunity to recognize those people who have been most supportive of my efforts during my stay at Brentwood:

First, I'd like to thank my parents and sister Janet for all of their support, patience, and love. I cannot say enough about you all, except to say that because of you, I know I'm going to do better than just fine.

To Mr. Downes and Dr. Selleck: I would like to thank you two gentlemen for providing me the opportunity to attend Brentwood School. A special thanks to Dr. Selleck for three crazy, bizarre, but fun basketball seasons — and also a very special note of gratitude to you, Mr. Downes, for making it perfectly clear that you genuinely cared.

Mr. Loy: You have influenced me more than any other person at Brentwood. I have been very fortunate to have gained knowledge not only from your academic guidance and counsel, but also from your classroom instruction and athletic coaching. As you go on to broaden your horizons, and I mine, it is my hope that we learned from one another. Thanks again.

Caras-aka "Polio": Youuuu . . . So tell my friend Carasski, now that our Brentwood days are thru; how many different colored knee braces do you have? Can you really out jump Scott? Did you really crash into Mel just to get a new car with no stereo? How was the J.T. concert? Did you really miss lay-ups on purpose to get more rebounds? Did you really take a shower at Spocke's? Are you really going to UCSB? Will you get married in '84? With Iceman's girl? Will your wife serve you vittles? Well I don't know the answers to these questions (maybe I'll find out in the eternal life), but I do know you've been a great friend and I wish you well in whatever you might do — no matter how stupid or disgusting it might be.

Kub: Yo homey, it's time to take that serious chill pill and make like Flash. But you know for real that we had some good times just hangin' -out. I'm sure you remember: the dial-n-run, the jailbird caper, Spocke'n ya jock, surfin' the waves, the AAU championships, 1984, KK, hk, the two-tone Mercedes, track practice, the trinity, Spocke in yo bag and on yo back, the days of Speck, the Crossroad crushes, Strawberry, Switzerland?, the Blazers, this, and much much more . . .

But this you remember, too, because I know it's so.
There will never be another like the "DEATH DUO".

Volleyball team of 1981: The EGG, taking you guys out to eat — cramming in the car — "Is this a rat trap?" — never again, singing songs from Fame in the van, we all have such lovely voices, laughing hysterically at all times — rolling on the floor, fun relays that nobody could manage, all those secrets. Practice was a new experience everyday.

Basketball: "22" Lone Pine tournament, the trip up there, getting stuck in the snow — "We're going to die" Oh —! (French), getting creamed — being run over by other players — talking all night — trying to keep S.G. up all night, playing a whole game. Drills — the weave — the scar Cathy gave me — Yeah, we bad we bad — coach giving us a rough time and all the other great times. Basketball is the greatest. Cambo, Pop-tart, P.O.S. and Minnie — lunchtime — don't touch me — Wow! Cathy has 3 braids — did you guys plan to bring the same lunch? Can I borrow some money — long discussions about Gelsons, trivia — I have an aunt who changed her name from Lillian to Marie — sneezing — "22" guys — Alan Alda's dancing. "I'm getting my act together and taking it on the road" — she is wearing a bobo kitty tea-shirt. The performers are staring at us, going out to eat, comparing our injuries, talking endlessly.

Dear Ade, Cammy and Cathy, I enjoyed all those intense discussions we had over these past years. It was comforting that we could confide in each other. Hopefully I will always be able to make you guys laugh. Love Minnie Kareem Abdul Garcia Sosnowsky. Things I had forgotten: going to the snow — snow chains — fog, I'd like to be a bench warmeee. Ade's parties — If you touch me, I'll kill you — you guys are making me cry — laughing, laughing, laughing. Oh! that was so nice of your mother to clean up your room." A.H., C.N., C.D., — talks about our favorite people — all of our idiosyncrazies L.R: Day Camp — Danielle — rowing a canoe at Disneyland. Big trip days — the worst, M.L., favorite campers, r. ceremonies, cabin with K.H. (Ha,Ha), nasty thoughts about our favorite people, working with Nancy (thanks for being so supportive), Y. & G. everything, school problems.

S.C.: ninnie, cigars, dancing to records, tape recording, filming, Carl's Jr. — laughing for hours — dancing n. applies — meeting strange people, movies — popcorn, eating out, laughing at anything and everything, 007, sunburns, d. berries, volleyball, day-camp — we made it, food fights, all those birthday parties, Halloween — stuck in the bushes, Disneyland and all those other experiences mentioned in your yearbooks. You are one of my closest friends: what san I say? My definition of S. & M., telling scary stories in the pool house.

C.S: D. Berries — locking me behind the door, blocking each other's lockers — your hand tastes terrible — senior retreat (I'm glad we are friends — thanks for making me feel better about myself) — the play, sitting on the patio with STRANGE people, trusting each other, confiding in one another, personal questions, making faces in Psyc — always getting in trouble — writing on each other — heaven — don't hit me, art with Mr. K and Mrs. Z. never compare hands, it's bad luck.

M.L. You gave me hope. Thanks for your support and understanding. By the way, can you see when you laugh?

Ms. M. Thanks for having confidence in me and thanks for giving me a chance.

Mrs. L. Thanks for wanting to help.

Mrs. D. I always enjoyed your classes and our little jokes.

and a very, very, very special thanx to Gary Bowler who is not only a great man but also responsible for all of this.

I dedicate this page to a family which has given more support and encouragement than anyone could ask for. I love you all very dearly, and Mom, you really are the greatest.

Hey it's good to be a young man and to live the way ya please.
Yes, a young man is the king of every kingdom that he sees,
But there's an old and feeble man not far behind.
It surely will catch up to him,
somewhere along the line.

It's time to talk of many things;
Of friends and school and flings,
And soon we all will cast our wings becoming in life great kings.

To thank my friends for all they've done would certainly take all night,
so to all of you with whom I've begun,
you have all been out of sight.

Brentwood School has been a time,
Of work and tests and friends,
None of which I will forget —
And on that you surely can bet.

So as I blow my candle out,
Please always do retain
It is not the time to be sad and pout,
But cheerfully continue the game.

Mammas don't let your babies grow up to be chipmunks.
Don't let'em pick guitars and drive them old trucks,
Let'em be doctors and lawyers and such . . .
"BUT MOM, I CAN MAKE A LIVING AS A
CHIPMUNK!"

The past six years that I have spent at Brentwood have been very tedious and difficult. But the knowledge and the sense of direction that I have acquired here make it all worthwhile. I'd like to thank all of the teachers who have had to put up with me, anywhere from one to four years. Two special teachers that I'll never forget:

Ms. Torre — thanks for four great years of math and don't worry about Roger's not getting it; I'll explain it to him later.

Ms. O'Hanlon — thanks for three unusual years at the V.A. and what about the name Orville? Maxmillan? Pugsley? . . .

I'd also like to thank all the coaches who have helped me to become a better athlete and all the students at Brentwood for making this school a pleasant place to be. The most thanks go to my parents for all of their nagging and encouragement throughout each school year. Without them, none of this would have been possible.

Thank you all.

Stuart

P.S. Good luck in the future to all my underclassmen and especially to the Senior class of 1982.

isn't he a bit like you and me?

The Lower School Boys competed this year in tag football, Basketball, Soccer, and Volleyball. Coaches Ingram and Basmagian are pleased to see the successes they've been able to share with their boys, and look forward, with pride, to seeing them move up into the future J.V. and Varsity teams at Brentwood.

The Li'l Eagles have been aggressive this year in all the sports — volleyball, swimming, gymnastics, basketball, softball, tennis & track. They've learned strategies and skills and had a great time participating. Coach Hooker commends Captains Heidi Henkle, Nancy Neiman, and Tiffany Rochelle, who were particularly helpful in organizing and leading their teams. Their efforts paid off in the achievements, skill improvements, and awards they earned for Brentwood and themselves.

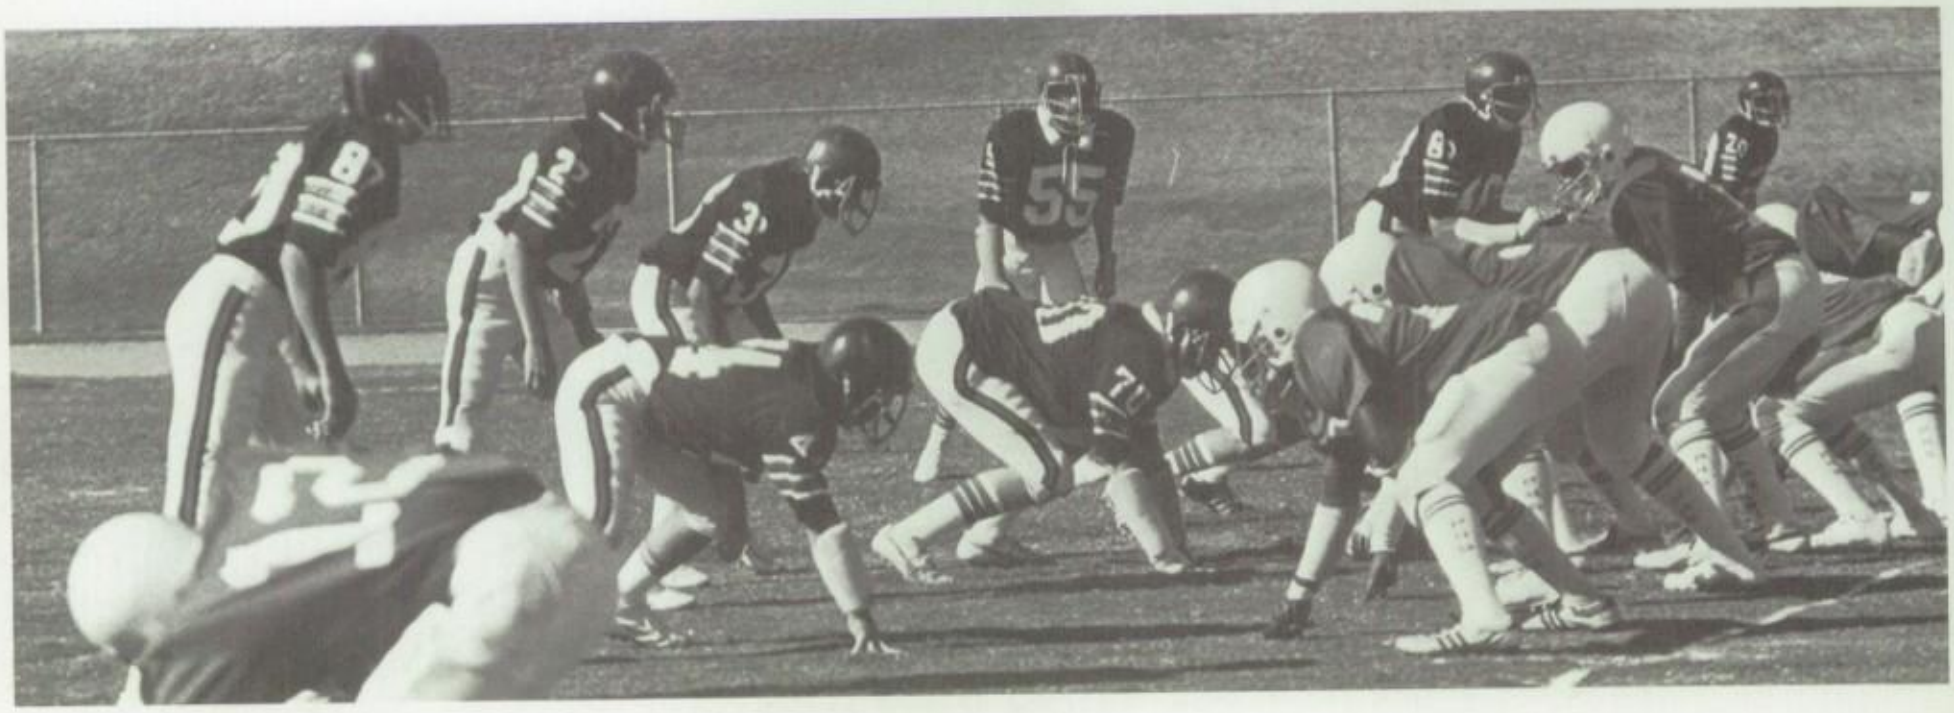
BRENTWOOD ELEVEN-MAN FOOTBALL IS BACK!

The NEW Brentwood EAGLES start slowly — little experience, late start, too little practice time — all contribute to the 0-3 first half of the '81 season, but — hard work, patience and determination all pay off as the Eagles soar over St. John Bosco, 39-12. The Eagles fly again! A Richmond to West last minute hitch pass gives Brentwood a hard earned come from behind victory which pleases the hundreds of homecoming fans at the Gahr game and brings the Eagle record to 3-2. A 6-6 tie the following week against undefeated Paramount is almost as good as a win and keeps the Eagle spirit high enough to carry the team on to a 13-0 win over El Rancho in the final game of the season and close the score books with a respectable 3-3-1 record. The Football Eagles look back on the accomplishments of their 1981 season with pride and are already looking forward to 1982.



The 1981 Football Players include: Coach Pat Brown, #60 Drew Herbert, #57 Brad Torres, #78 Marc Camras, #30 Rich Hodge, #70 Peter Everett, #65 Chris Gowing, Coach Paul Sczcepaniak, #15 Charles Wade, #88 Bob Ferguson, #5 Henry Olson, #22 Steve Orr, #45 William Woodfield, #40 John Duvall, #35 Eric Neiman, #55 Rob West, #80 Greg Howard, #41 Dan Riley, #33 Brad Kesner, #25 Blake McLaughlin, #7 Jeff Lucich, #12 Scott Agnew, #68 Brian Temple, #17 Doyle Richmond, #20 Jeff Beckmen.

VOLLEYBALL — A Geometric Analysis — with Monique Math

The game of volleyball begins with a serve, which must be a precise, forward and upward movement of a spherical leather orb over a vertically projecting equiangular quadrilateral of net which extends exactly 7 feet 4½ inches (or 254 centimeters) perpendicular to the gym floor. The serve is received by an upward pass of the arms, which must be instantaneously tangent and non-adherent to the sphere.

At this point, the setter, a second player, redirects the spherical object a precise distance above the quadrilateral to a marked point. Meanwhile, the third contact is prepared by a player who catapults herself parallel to the bisected plane of the sphere and the net. Upon contact, she hurls the projected orb into a downward trajectory across the quadrilateral, hoping to avoid interception by opponent and gain intersection with the gym floor, thereby attaining a 1/15 portion of the final game objective, a point.

CROSSCOUNTRY

One of the most accomplished athletes ever to set foot on Brentwood soil, George Yuster, above, has broken all records this year on the cross country courses of the Prep League. Finishing some courses well over a minute ahead of his nearest opponent, George has gone on to take a personal second place in the CIF 1A Division for cross country, and has been invited to run in the Sunkist Invitational meet.

Another Eagle runner of distinction is Kenny Williams, above left, also an "in the money" finisher at the CIF finals.

Frosh-Soph Team: Back: Coach Paul Gibson, Croft Drinkwater, Ted Bush, Ian Linden, Coach Ed McCatty. Front: J.C. Vitale, Chris Haggstrom, Brian Baumgard, Mike Ray.

The 1981 cross country teams were bigger and better than any before. Not only were there thirty-one boys on the combined frosh-soph, JV, and varsity teams, but Brentwood fielded its first-ever girls' cross country team.

Both boys' and girls' teams qualified for CIF prelims, with the boys' continuing to the finals. On November 22, 1981, the Brentwood boys' varsity captured the runner-up trophy, finishing second in all Southern California in the 1A Division. What a Team! What a season!

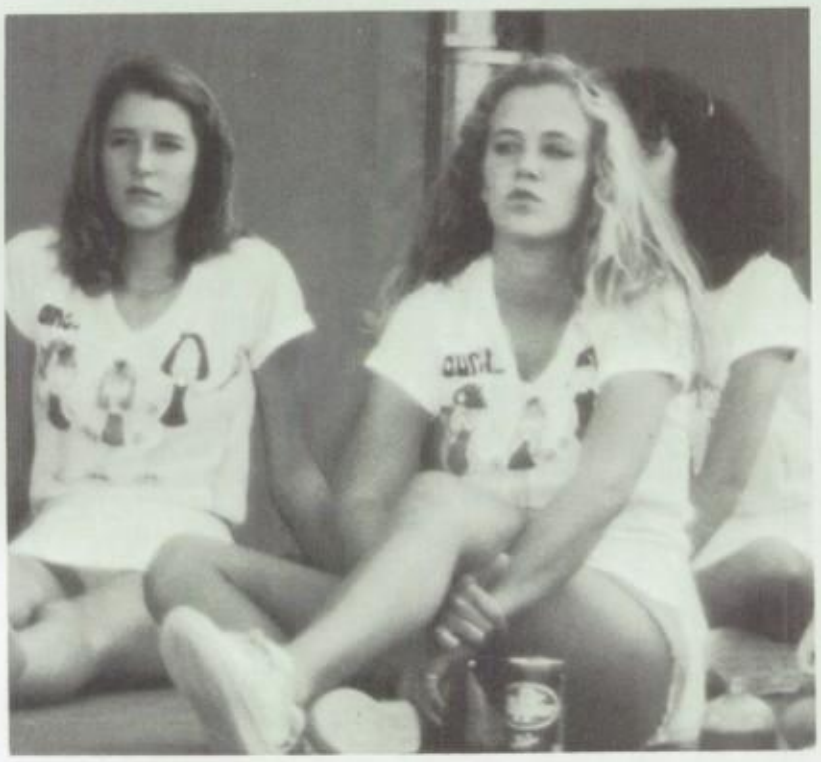
TENNIS



The Girls' Tennis Team finished its 1981 season with a successful 8-4 record to place third in Delphic League and advance to CIF Division 2A playoffs.

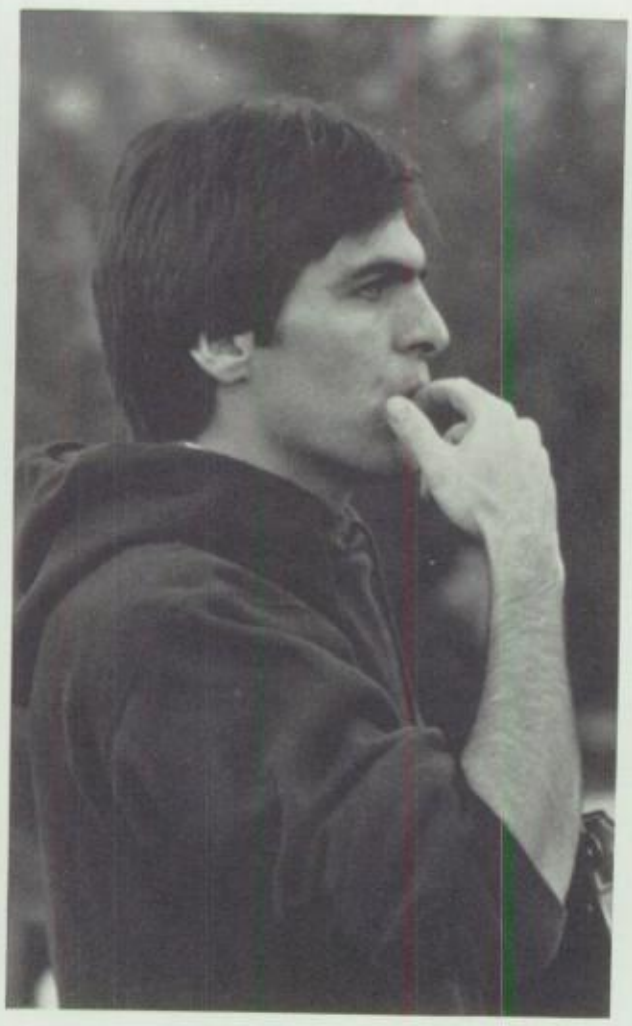
Fun Loving, Hard Hitting, 1981 Junior Varsity Delphic League Champions (11-1). What a Team!

JV SOCCER

The Junior Varsity Soccer Team was a young team, but it improved with each game. Fourteen freshmen, two sophomores, and four juniors developed remarkable poise as the season progressed, bouncing back from early shutout losses to high scoring victories in later games.

The J.V. soccer team includes (beginning with upper left corner) Maurice Schweitzer, Bill Nason, Phil Pecsok, Mike Shoback, Brett Shuemaker, Jeff Rubin, Melanie Crandall, Jon Froley, Kevin Beckman, Tony Pauker, Scott Agnew, Chris Gowing, Ian Linden, Eric Neiman, Steve Matlin, Andy Gilbert, Paul Apted, Brad Kesner.



The team's offense, led by Paul Apted, Corey Wolff, Brad Katz, and Phil Pecsok, overcame early season nervousness to post the first Brentwood junior varsity victory in over two years. On defense, team captain, Andy Gilbert coordinated an impressive backfield who kept opponents' shots out of the Brentwood nets.

Every member of the team showed the kind of progress that will help build a strong soccer program at Brentwood, and prospects for next year's varsity look great!

VARSITY SOCCER

The Brentwood Varsity soccer team leads the prep league with its 9-1-0 record in a successful bid for their second consecutive league title. Fine coaching by Paul Sczcepaniak,along with addition of some talented underclassmen has brought the Eagle Kickers success.

Offensive leaders of this years' squad, Rob West & Rod Castro lead the Eagles in goals scored. Returning defensemen Don Haven, Jamie Mearns, and Sam Sargent have kept opponent goals to a minium. Also having an exceptional year as goalie is Chris Hume.

Varsity soccer, heading for CIF gold!

The conclusion of this 1982 basketball season will see coach John Hutson graduating 5 of his Varsity Lady Eagles. Leaving the nest will be starters Cathy Dunn, Adrienne Hamcke and Cammy Niebel who have "earned their wings," after four years of team work under coach Hutson. Also "taking off" will be Marcia Sosnow and Jo Hand.

Improvement was the good news for this eagle team. Underclassmen Susie Geoffrion and Tiffany Iino sparked the team to 3 early season victories, leading them to "aim high" for playoffs.

Injury was the bad news. An unfortunate knee injury to Tiffany and a thumb sprain to Adrienne slowed the Eagles and frustrated them in some of the "close ones."

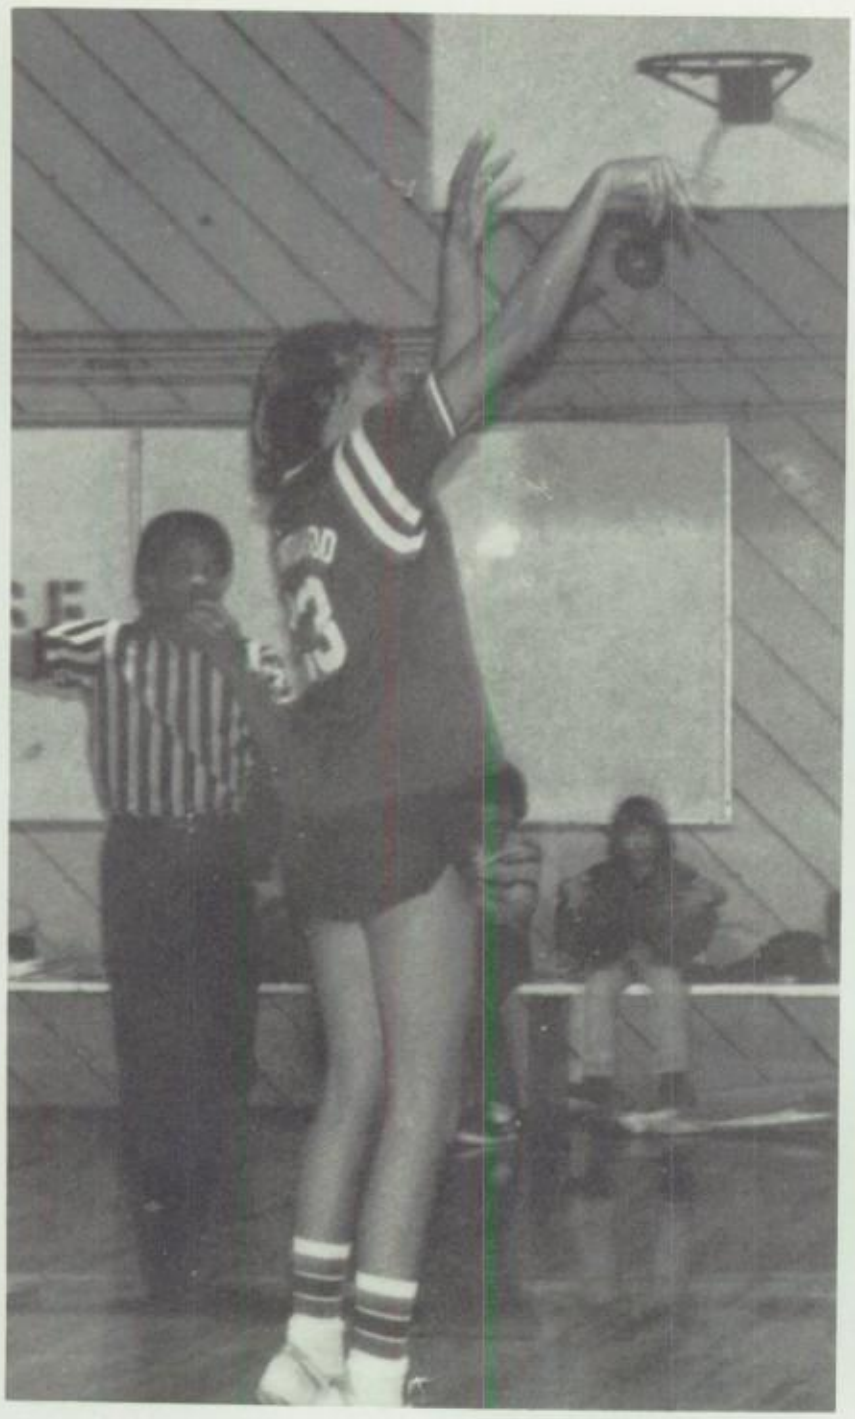
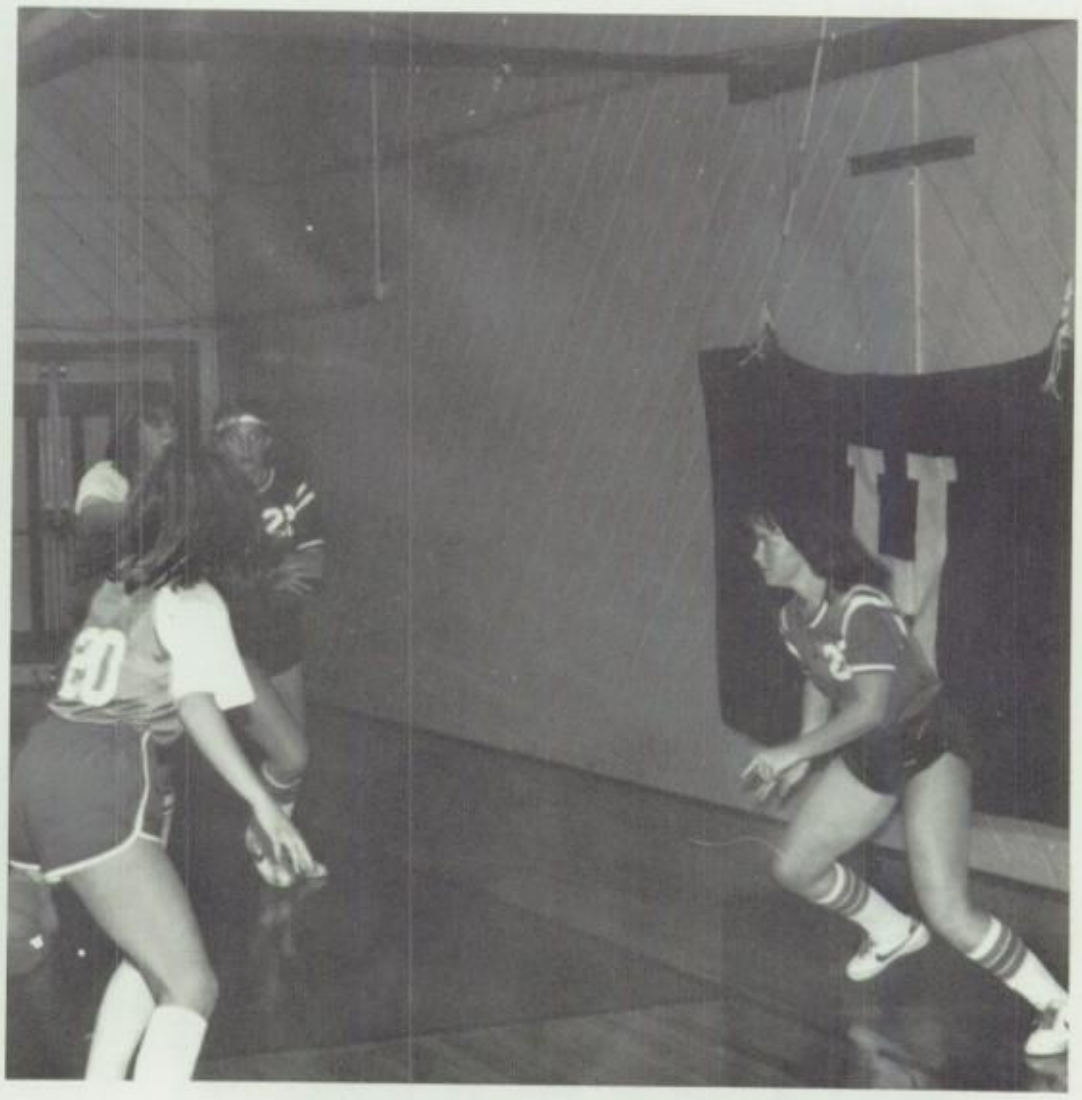
VARSITY BASKETBALL

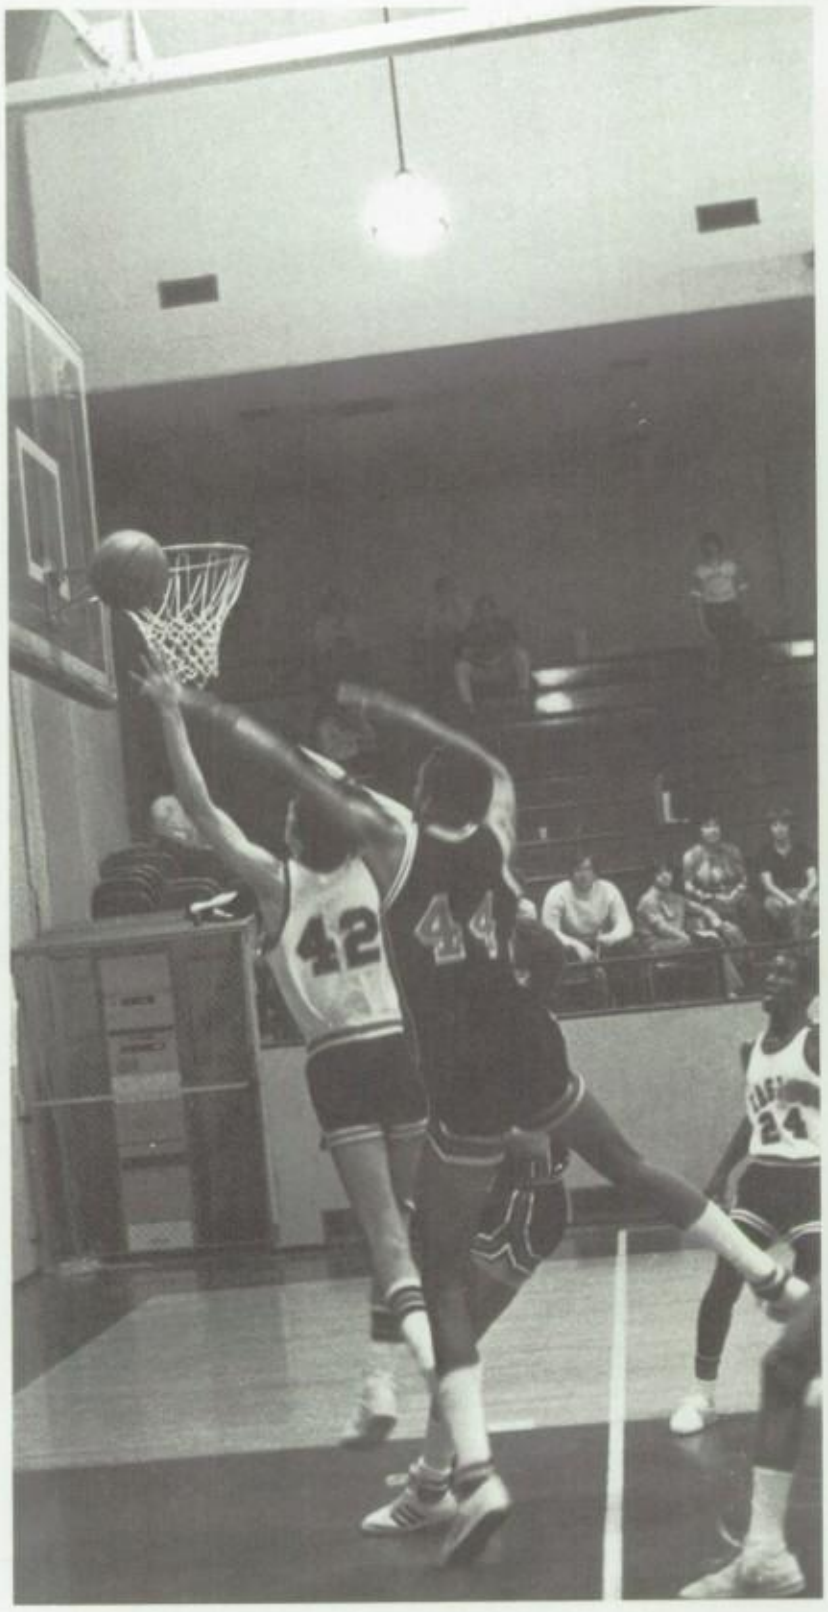
Jo, Australian exchange student, lends a hand to the Lady Eagles Basketball Squad in hopes that the Aussie strategy might befuddle Delphic opponents and bring Brentwood its best girls' varsity basketball season on record.





Mirror, mirror, on the wall, which Delphic basketball team is above them all?

VARSITY BASKETBALL



Seniors Andy Caras (42), Charles Wade (34) Herman McKinney (24), and Yakub Abdul-Rahman are joined by junior point guard Matt Rothman (10) as starters for the Eagle basketball team.

Blending a team of 7 seniors, 3 juniors, and 3 sophomores, the 81-82 Varsity Basketball Squad began a winning season in the Saint Monica's Tournament.

Man-to-man defense, coupled with a well disciplined fast-break offense puts the Brentwood Team a class above most small school competitors, with excellent prospects for the Delphic League Title and small School playoffs.

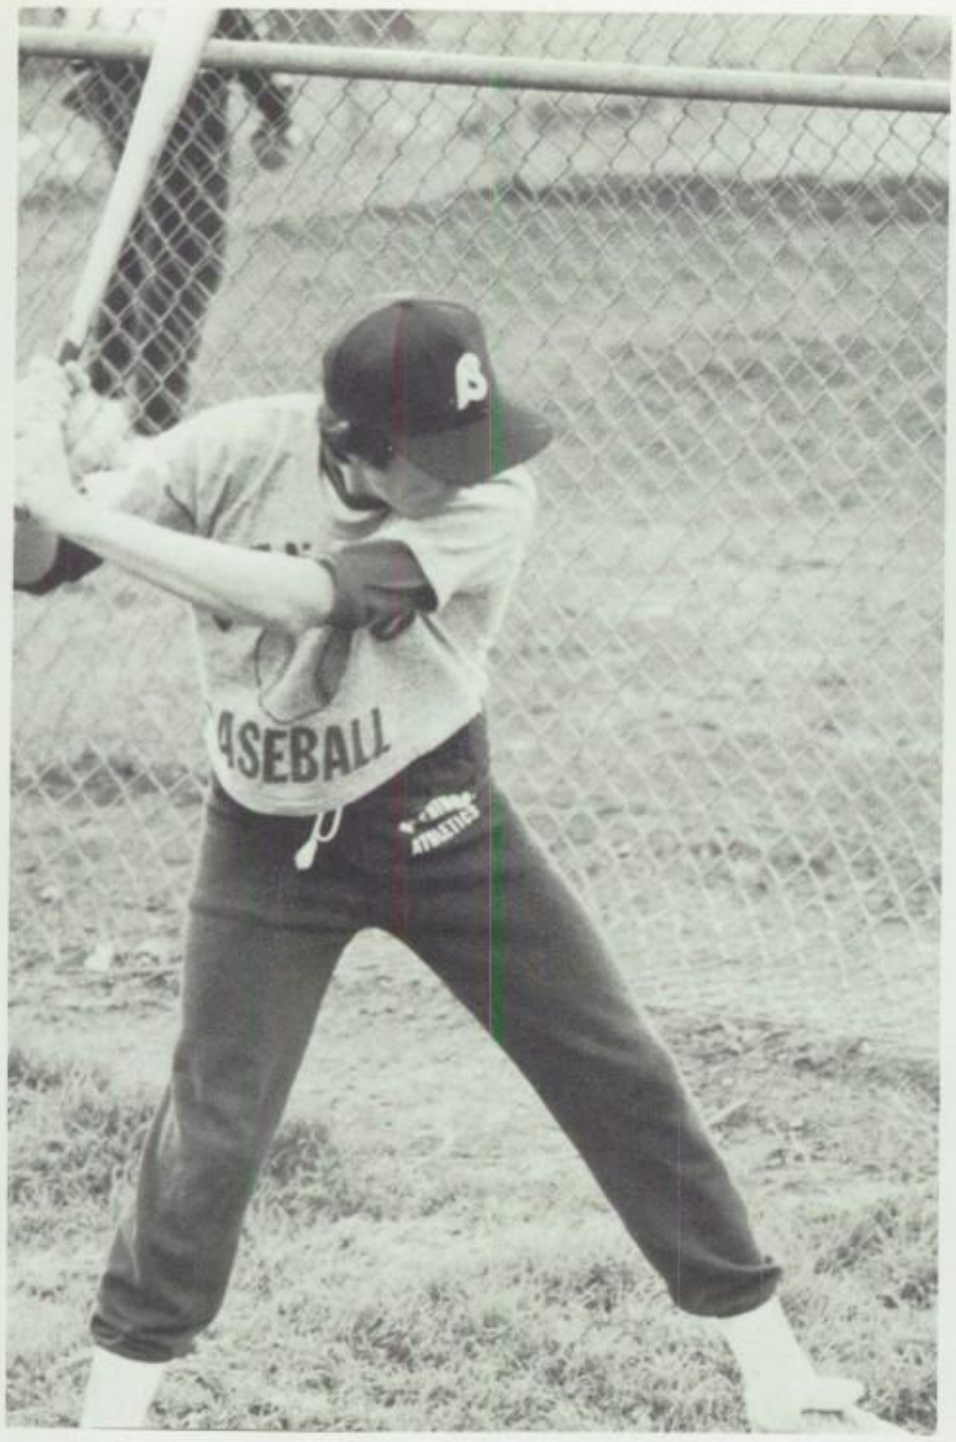
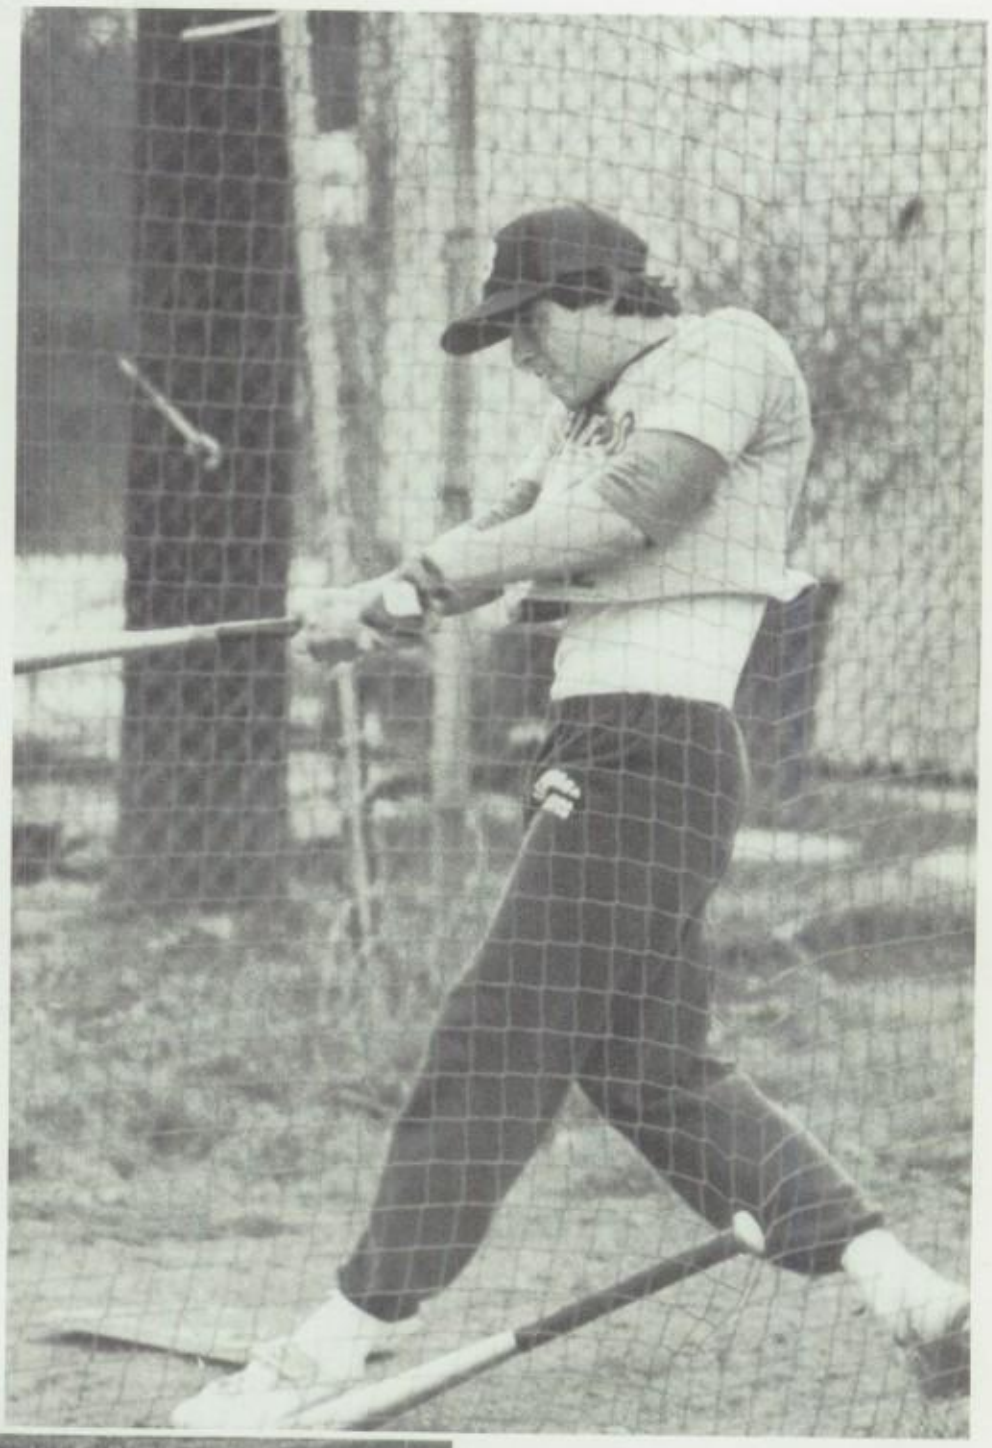
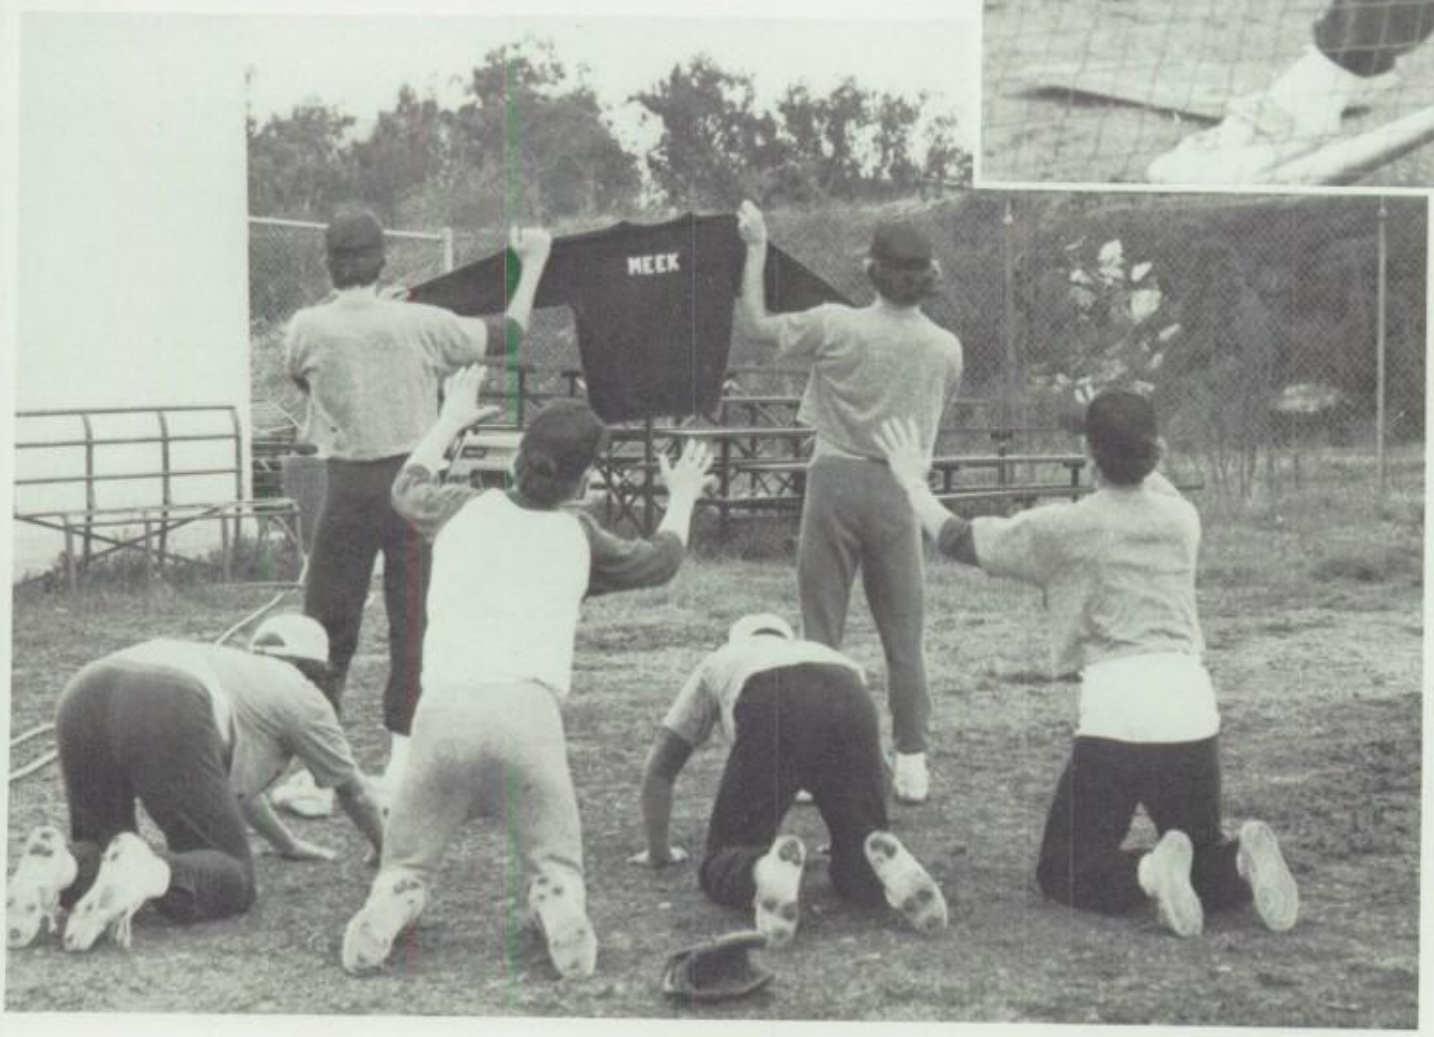
VARSITY BASEBALL





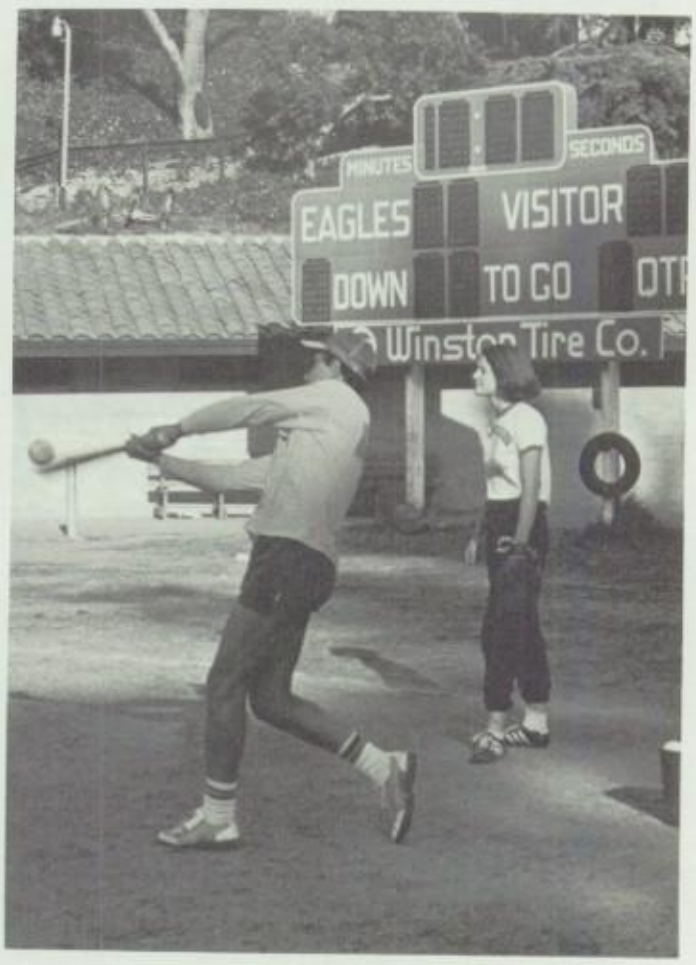


Just about to begin its season as Aerie goes to print, the 1982 Baseball team with its blend of youthful enthusiasm and veteran experience plans to carry on the winning Brentwood Baseball tradition. Coach Craig Rehder returns to the Eagle nest as varsity coach after a 4 year leave of absence. Assisting him, Coach Pat Brown, predicts "as good a starting line up as we've ever fielded."

GYMNASTICS

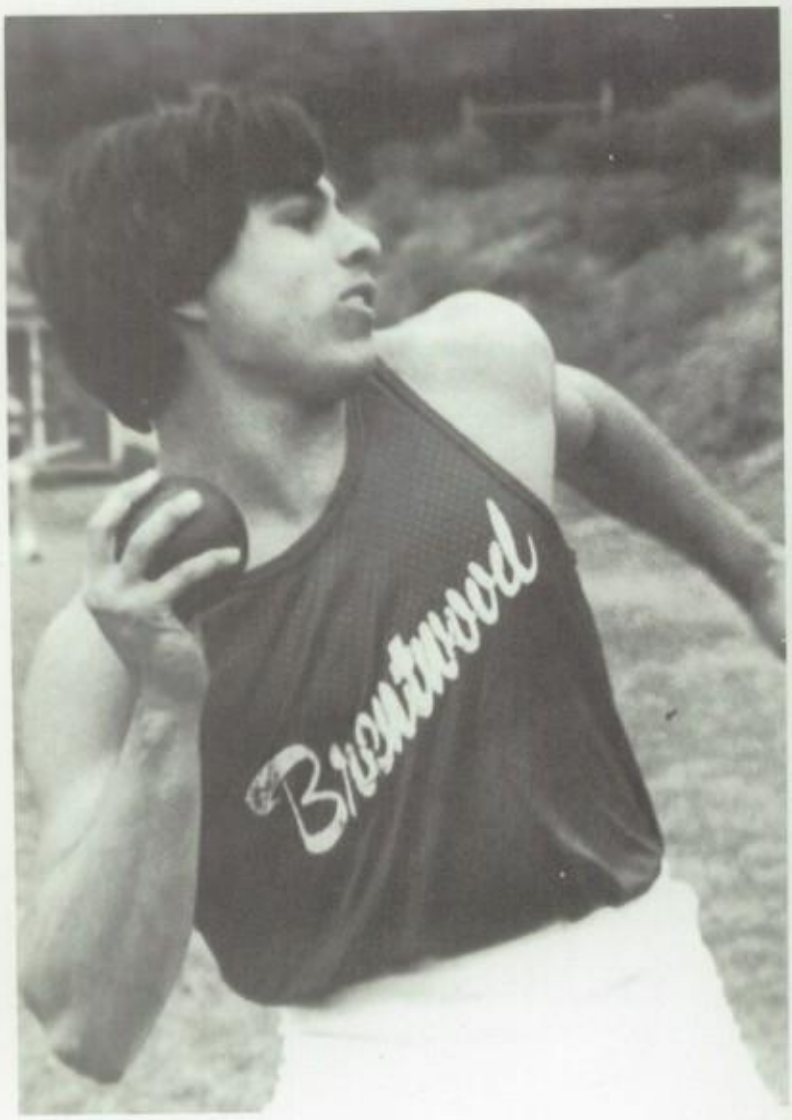
Gymnastics is not for everyone. It requires strength, agility, balance, endurance, and toughness — both mental and physical. But for Coach Viscum and a small group of Brentwood girls each year, gymnastics is . . .

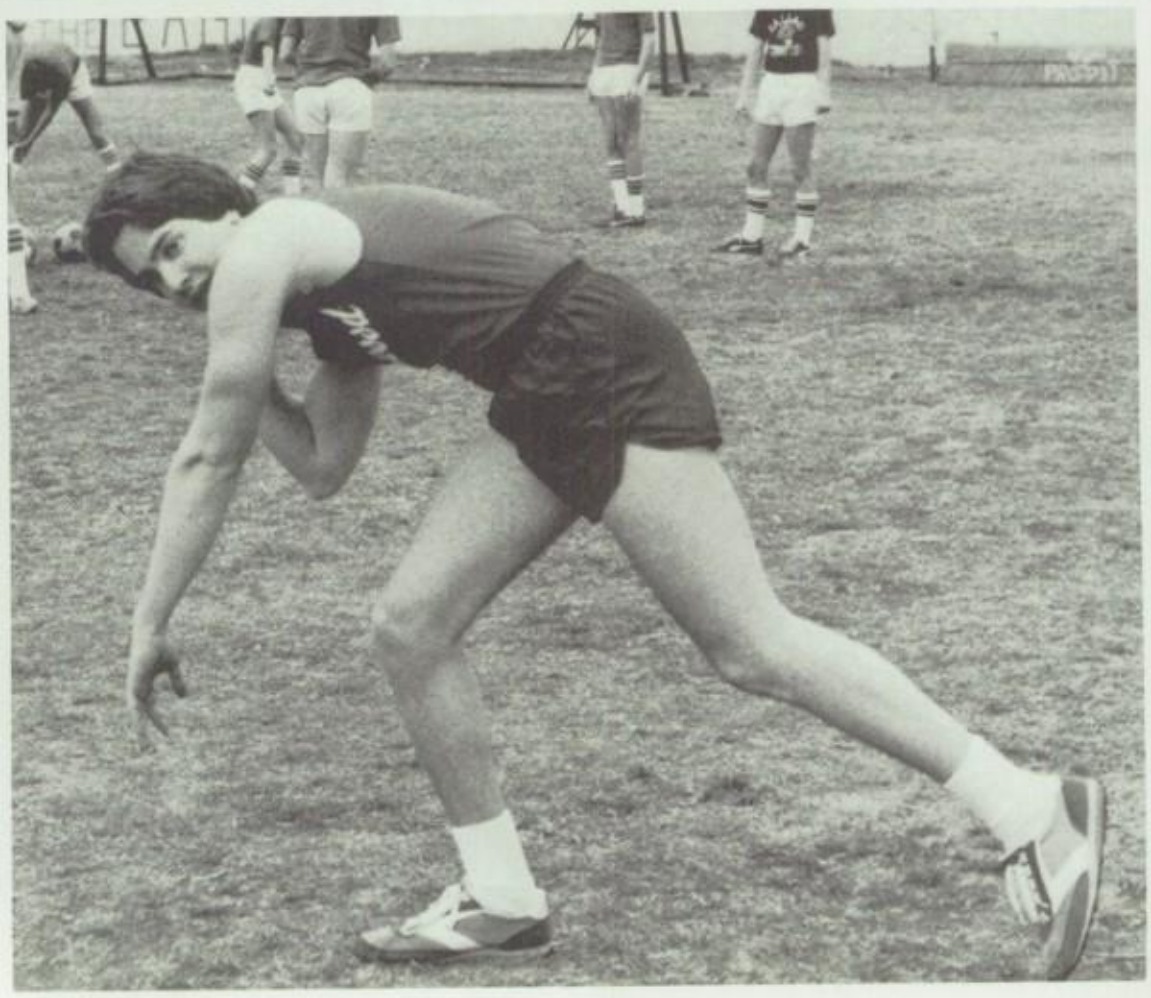
SOFTBALL



Softball is the most popular of the girls' Spring sports, and the 1982 season looks like a big one. With returning players at key positions, and Coach Jesson hot off a 12 game winning streak, look out girls' Delphic!

New coaches and a cast of thousands — the 1982 Track and Field program — A co-ed spring sport at Brentwood offers an individual the challenge to perfect natural talents — running, throwing, jumping — in order to earn honors for your team, and yourself.

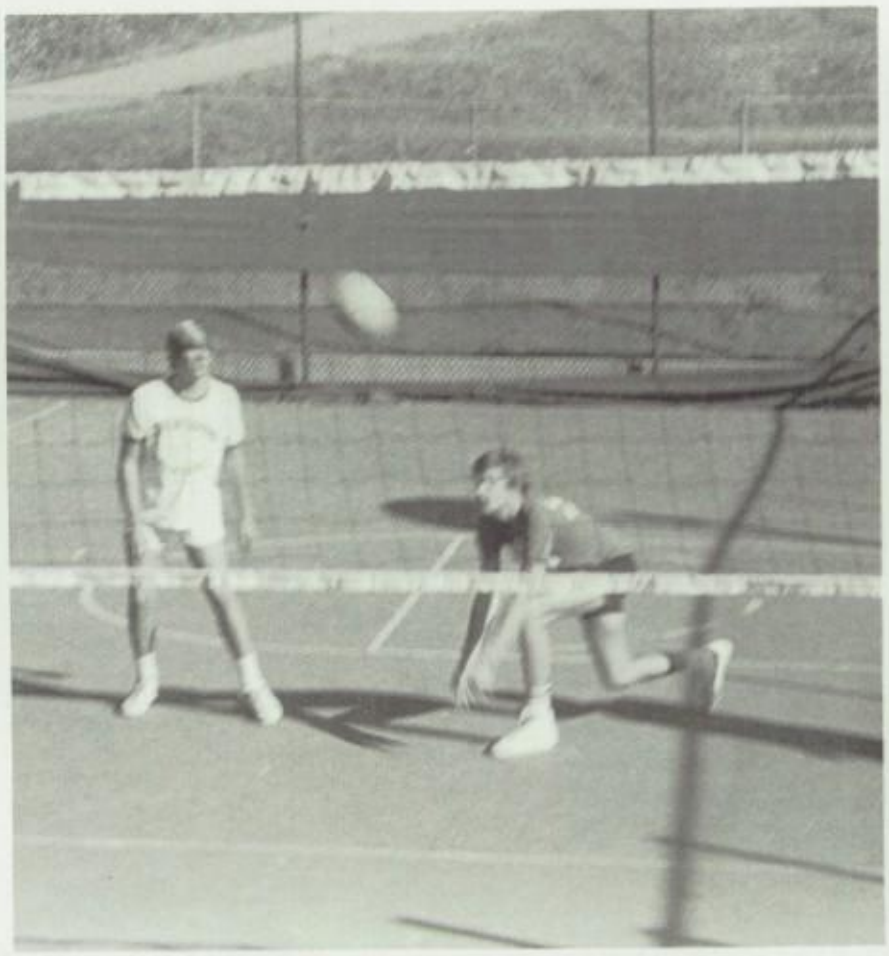




TRACK & FIELD

VOLLEYBALL

The 1982 Boys' Volleyball Team will see a significant number of players returning from the '81 season. An important new name on the roster this year is head coach, Bob Ingram. Although he has his work cut out for him, due to the fact that the boys' volleyball team is not in a league, but competes free lance, coach Ingram's biggest challenge will be to whip this basicly "beach" crew into an efficient 6-man playing unit. His reaction to the challenge — "Let's get started."



TENNIS

Talented 9th graders will challenge the returning racketmen, providing strength and depth in the 1982 Boys' Tennis Program. Emphasis this season is on endurance as well as strength, as the Prep League will use a round robin format in all its matches. In looking over preseason prospects, Coach Burbank is pleased to predict a winning season.

Student Government is a body of representatives elected to serve the school in general and the classes in particular. The Lower School Student Government works independently from the Upper School, focusing their energies on fund raising events for class trips and projects. The Upper School Student Government plans events, raises funds and meets pre-assigned obligations such as the Prom, Grad night, and the Ring Ceremony. Most of the representatives' energies are devoted to the organization of events such as the Holiday Dance, Pep Rallies, Valentine's Day Carnations and Superstars Day. Funds to finance these events are raised through class car washes, sales and raffles. While it is impossible to deliver every request that students offer, student government attempts to coordinate and organize options to the daily schedule.

The Brentwood School Parents' Association is a group of parents committed to the support of Brentwood School. We help the school with tour guides, orientation luncheons, and refreshments for the Open Houses. Grade level coffees are also given to keep the parents informed about school activities. Assistance is provided for the individual grades with their respective functions such as field trips, fund raisers, parties, the Junior-Senior Ring Ceremony, the Prom and, most importantly, Graduation.

At the beginning of the school year we host a Parent-Faculty Reception, which is always well attended. In December, we hold our Holiday Boutique, the proceeds from which go 100% for academic enrichment at Brentwood School. Another service project performed by the Parents' Association is preparing and giving gifts to the patients at the V.A. Hospital.

In the Spring, a General Meeting is held at which time we honor those among us who, through the years, have given exceptional service to Brentwood School. A donation, in their name, is given to the Brentwood School Scholarship Fund. For a change of pace, a Tennis Tournament-Luncheon is held for fun and relaxation.

At the end of the school year a Thank-You Luncheon is given to our hard working faculty. We value their dedication. The Parents' Association also appreciates and encourages all the support the families of Brentwood School give to enrich our school.

Best Wishes and Congratulations to the Class of 1982.

"There are persons who are always talking about preparing for life. The best way to prepare for life is to begin to live. A school should not be a preparation; a school should be life . . . From the age of fourteen and upward the pupil should feel that he is doing something useful, not merely killing time, and so his work and his instruction should go right along hand in hand. The educated man is the useful man."
